

“AK IN A NUT SHELL”

A totally new concept of learning and applying AK techniques in your practice.

This course will concentrate 100-hours, 10 sessions into just 50 hours all you need to know in just 5 weekend sessions. This course has been designed for the busy doctor who is in practice. The course is useful as an introductory to Applied Kinesiology, and also an excellent review for doctors who have already completed the basic 100-hours course.

- No longer be a slave of managed care
- Enjoy a predominantly cash practice
- Get quicker, long lasting results
- Choose the patients you want
- Help a larger and more diverse patient population
- Build a referral type of practice

When you become versed in the principles of Applied Kinesiology taught in a scientific manner, you will vastly improve your range of diagnostic and therapeutic skills — you will become a specialist!
